

Dear Fellow Gun Owner:

My name is Daniel Crowe, and I am the Republican nominee for Oregon Attorney General in this year's election. I am writing to ask for your vote, for your endorsement, for your passion for Oregon's future, and for your financial support. Incumbent AG Ellen Rosenblum is a threat to our gun rights – your gun rights – and she can be beaten; but I need your support, and I need it now so we can encourage others to get involved.

The Oregon Firearms Federation was created “after several years of watching other local ‘gun organizations’ give away the store.” It is dedicated to providing a much-needed no-compromise voice for gun owners. I am proud to have earned OFF's endorsement as an unapologetic defender of every Oregonian’s liberties.

I am running because I am tired of Oregon’s Gun Owners constantly being on the defensive. Section 27 of the Oregon Bill of Rights gives us an unambiguous right to bear arms for self-defense, and it is time to push back against the confiscation agenda being bought and paid for by the Bloomberg Cabal in Salem, which most certainly includes our current attorney general.

I am reaching out to every gun owner in Oregon and asking for your support because honest government and respect for the rule of law – and our state and federal Constitutions – is right for Oregon.

We have a winning plan, and it’s about focusing on clean government, accountability, and safeguarding both your rights and your tax dollars.

We have a clear path to victory, and it depends on getting the word out. This is the year. People are sick and tired of career politicians who want to take away our rights and the cronyism that fuels the rotten and rigged system. That’s why I asked Kevin Starrett to share this call to arms with you—to earn your vote and merit your support. As much as I’d like to, I can’t reach out to every Oregon Gun Owner individually. But, through Kevin, I will be able to connect with many, many more of you.

If each of you contributes whatever you can afford, then we'll kick AWOL Ellen out of office and send a powerful message to out-of-state interests who demand a disarmed Oregon. If you decide instead to stand idly by, then be prepared to explain to your grandchildren a long-lost Oregon in which law-abiding people had a right to defend themselves in their own homes, to hunt if they chose, and to enjoy the freedoms which you surrendered.

I aim to deliver more than a rearguard action to the Bloomberg Cabal. As Attorney General of Oregon, I will work to ensure Concealed Carry Permits from other States are given the same recognition as driver's licenses. Since every lawyer in Oregon government reports to the Attorney General, the Democrat's ability to rule undemocratically goes down by 95% if they don't control the AG.

We need to push back against the lie that taking your guns away will make Oregon safer. Instead of playing defense on the issue, I have challenged the incumbent Attorney General to join me in agreeing to a comprehensive reform of how we care for Oregonians who are mentally ill—the real cause of our current public safety crisis.

Oregon deserves an Attorney General who puts "People Before Politics" and puts your rights ahead of a narrow, hyper-partisan agenda dictated by rich liberals who don't even live here.

Stand up for Oregon. Stand with me. As a native Oregonian, a father, a husband, a West Point Graduate, an Army Ranger, a two-time National Champion for Army Pistol and NRA All-American, and a Life Member of the NRA, I am a leader who can deliver justice to Oregon. As a lawyer who's taken on the toughest challenges and won – both in uniform as a Judge Advocate and here in Oregon – I have the experience and expertise to serve all of Oregon.

In her hour of greatest need, Oregon needs you. No donation is too small to get us started or too great to safeguard our liberties.
